6. (Internal Use Only - CM) LIAISON I called Mark Moran, Senator Frank Church's (D., Idaho) S. Res. 4 designee on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and advised him that we still would not approve his request for compartmented (SI/TK) clearances, adhering to the distinction made between Committee and personal staffers. He reiterated his concern to receive them, noted Senator Church's recent appointment to the SALT Advisory Team as giving him reason to want to be able to assess verification procedures, and suggested Senator Church might bring the matter to a luncheon he is to have soon with Zbigniew Brzezinski, Presidential Assistant for National Security, as well as directly to the DCI. I suggested that Moran talk with George Cary or [] if he wanted more on our position from a higher level than I. He said he thought he might call []

7. (Unclassified - CM) LIAISON Barbara Allem, staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, called to ask if Pauline Baker, also of the Committee staff, could see a 6 November 1975 Committee hearing transcript which we hold. We left it that Baker would review the transcript while here on 7 July for a briefing, when she will also be sworn in for SI/TK clearances.

8. (Unclassified - CM) LIAISON Anonymous calls to the Joint Committee on Congressional Operations and the Office of the Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives elicited and then confirmed that the Doorkeeper's office has the responsibility for the Capitol Page School. [] asked for the inquiry.

9. (Unclassified - THW) BRIEFING Called Bob Dockery, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, and discussed the ground rules for the briefing of the Subcommittee on Near East and South Asian Affairs set for 11 July and asked him to convey the message to Pauline Baker, also of the Committee staff.

Later, I accompanied [] ORPA, to a briefing of Dockery on Cuban activities in the Western Hemisphere. There were some follow-up items which Kent will forward to me through [] CSS.

We set the briefing on Mexico for [] Paul Sarbanes, (D., Md.) for 14 July, at 3:15 p.m.
